

COLOR SCAVENGER HUNT

Search outside for something that matches each other. Look for bright spring flowers, plants, and other outdoor objects until you have a collection of things that fills the color palette. Have your child identify each color as you find it outside, then have them point to the color it matches on the scavenger hunt palette.